

No Next Company, employee, agent or third party acting on its or their behalf shall, knowingly or in expectation:

- Offer, promise or give a bribe to induce or reward another person to undertake or procure, the performance of an improper act;
- Request, agree to receive or accept any bribe from another person by way of an inducement or a reward to undertake, or procure, the performance of an improper act; or
- Unlawfully induce a foreign public official, in their official capacity, to obtain or retain business.